

ENTREPRENEUR ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION

Thursday, October 22 • 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Please join us for a dynamic roundtable discussion that will explore the promotion of entrepreneurs and small/medium-sized businesses in New York City.

This roundtable will offer the chance for member entrepreneurs and experts to discuss best practices in such areas as the financing of activities; the successful business plan; and common challenges faced, including legal, tax and IT issues, as well as labor & immigration law compliance.

In addition to member entrepreneurs & experts, we will be joined by:

Sam Natapoff, Senior Advisor to Governor Paterson on International Commerce & Senior VP of International Economic Development, Empire State Development Corporation

Terry Jackson, Managing Director, International Business, Office of the Mayor, NYC Commission for the United Nations, Consular Corps & Protocol

David Hochman, Executive Director, Business Incubator Association of New York State

The discussion will be moderated by Jabril Bensedrine, Managing Director, The Triana Group, Inc., and Philippe Manteau, Of Counsel, Watson, Farley & Williams.

This event is generously hosted by Watson, Farley & Williams.

A selection of wines will be provided by FACC member Baron Francois.
